

lease grounds, to occupy, lease or erect an appropriate building or buildings for the use of said library, to appoint a suitable librarian and assistants, to fix compensation of such appointees, and to remove them if unsatisfactory, and shall in general carry out the spirit and intent of sections 100 to 120 in establishing and maintaining public libraries and reading rooms.

Ibid. sec. 101. 1898, ch. 515, sec. 7. 1902, ch. 367, sec. 8. 1910, ch. 505, sec. 108 (p. 224).

113. All moneys collected for such libraries and reading rooms by the county commissioners or governing boards of incorporated municipalities as hereinabove provided, shall be deposited in the treasury of said county or of the said municipality, respectively, to the credit of the library fund, and shall be kept separate and apart from other moneys of such county or municipality, and paid over to the treasurer of the library board upon the demand of the board.

Ibid. sec. 102. 1898, ch. 515, sec. 8. 1902, ch. 367, sec. 9. 1910, ch. 505, sec. 109 (p. 224).

114. Every library and reading room established under sections 100 to 120 shall be forever free to the use of the inhabitants of the county, election district or municipality where it is located; subject, however, to such reasonable rules and regulations as the library board may adopt, and said board may exclude from the use of said libraries and reading rooms any and all persons who shall wilfully violate such rules, and may extend the privilege of said library to persons living outside of the county or municipality, upon such terms and conditions as said board may from time to time by its regulations prescribe.

115. Every person who shall steal or unlawfully take or detain, or who shall mutilate, injure or disfigure by writing, marking, cutting, tearing or otherwise, any book, map, picture, engraving, manuscript or other property of any public library or circulating library, or library belonging to the State of Maryland, or to any municipality or public body or incorporated institution, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars, said fine to be used for the benefit of the library, or be imprisoned for not more than three months, or, in the discretion of the court, may be both fined and imprisoned as aforesaid.

1904. art. 77, sec. 103. 1898, ch. 515, sec. 9. 1902, ch. 367, sec. 10. 1910, ch. 505, sec. 111 (p. 225).

116. Each library board established under sections 100 to 120 shall make an annual report to the county commissioners or legislative authority of the municipality, or before the twentieth day of January, stating the condition of their trust on the first day of January in that year, the various sums of money received from the library fund and from other sources, and how such moneys have been expended and for what
