190. Any person or corporation lending money on mortgage upon property in any one or more of the counties specially enumerated in section 187, their agent or attorney, in addition to the usual oath or affirmation as to the bona fides of the consideration, shall take an oath or make an affirmation, to be endorsed upon the mortgage, and to follow immediately after the said oath or affirmation, as follows: "And did also make oath in due form of law (or did solemnly and truly declare and affirm) that the mortgagee has not required the mortgagor, his agent or attorney, or any person for the said mortgagor, to pay the tax levied upon the interest covenanted to be paid, in advance, nor will he require any tax levied thereon to be paid by the mortgagor, or any person for him, during the existence of this mortgage;" and upon the assignment of any mortgage upon property in any one or more of said counties, which mortgage was executed after the thirtieth day of March, in the year 1896, except for the purpose of foreclosure, the assignee, his agent or attorney shall take the oath or make the affirmation prescribed in this section; and when said oath or affirmation is made by an agent or attorney, he shall, in addition thereto, make oath or affirmation that he is the agent or attorney of the assignee, which oaths or affirmation shall be recorded with the assignment. No mortgage or assignment of mortgage shall be valid except as between the parties thereto, unless the said oaths or affirmation shall be endorsed thereon; provided, that nothing in this section shall apply to mortgages executed and recorded in any one or more of said counties prior to the fifteenth day of March, in the year 1902.

Where no interest is provided for in a mortgage (the transaction being a bona fide one), this section is not applicable. Salabes v. Castelberg, 98 Md. 654.
