

for the purpose of working in any stone quarry operated by said commission, the said commission is hereby authorized to make requisitions on the directors of the Maryland House of Correction for as many inmates thereof as may be necessary for said purpose; and the said directors are hereby directed to furnish the same with such guards or keepers as can be spared from their duties at the said house of correction; and any additional guards or keepers necessary for the safe keeping of said inmates shall be furnished and appointed by said commission. The said commission shall in conjunction with the aforesaid board of directors of the house of correction provide for the maintenance and safe keeping of said inmates of the house of correction while so employed.

1910, ch. 116, sec. 32 z4 (p. 311).

62. In addition thereto, but not in substitution for the methods of condemnation provided in the preceding sections of this act and for the purpose of further defining the same, it is hereby provided: (A) All condemnation proceedings under this act shall be in the name of the State of Maryland. (B) Proceedings for the condemnation of any bridge over any stream or river dividing two counties may be begun or completed in either of said counties.

1910, ch. 501, sec. 32 w (p. 311).

63. Whenever, for the purpose of building a new road or widening any existing road or crossing the tracks of any railroad, it shall become necessary to condemn any land or water or any interest in, under or over the same which the state roads commission is authorized to acquire under the preceding sections of this article, it shall and may be lawful for said commission to proceed as follows: The commission shall cause to be prepared a preliminary report, with such plat or plats as may be necessary and showing: (a) The description, quantity and nature of the property to be taken; (b) the amount of damages awarded therefor; (c) the amount of benefits assessed to the adjoining land (which shall not exceed the damages awarded and costs of condemnation), and which in case of a railroad crossing shall be governed by the section of this sub-title for such cases provided; (d) the names of the persons interested in the property taken or benefited, with their respective estates and interests therein (and if any such estates or interests shall belong to the unknown heirs of any deceased owner, the report shall so state); (e) and the damages and benefits awarded or assessed to each. Upon completion of such report the state roads commission shall, by an advertisement inserted twice successively in one or more newspapers published in the county where the land lies, give notice to the parties interested (naming them) that such preliminary report is open to inspection at the office of the commission, and that during a period of fifteen days from the date of the first publication of such notice the commission will hear objections and make such corrections as may be proper. After the expiration of said period of fifteen days a final report, including
