

ordinary amount of wear and tear thereon. Such orders and regulations, when and as promulgated or altered, shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper of the county in which the road or roads affected may lie. Any person knowingly violating any such order or regulation shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one nor more than one hundred dollars, or imprisoned for not less than ten days nor more than three months, or both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

1904, art. 91, sec. 33. 1904, ch. 225, sec. 1. 1910, ch. 217, sec. 33 (p. 314).

66. All of the powers and duties specified and set forth in sections 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49 and 50 of this article and sub-title as the same are set forth in the Code of Public General Laws of 1904, formerly conferred upon the commission composed of the governor, the comptroller, the president of Johns Hopkins University, and the president of the Maryland Agricultural College, known as the State Geological and Economic Survey, which said commission is described in section 19 of this article, are hereby transferred from the said commission, the State Geological and Economic Survey, and imposed upon and given to the state roads commission, created by act of the General Assembly of Maryland, chapter 141 of the acts of 1908, or any amendments thereto, together with all accounts, records, contracts, obligations, unexpended balances, and all property and things appertaining to the same, and to the said State Geological and Economic Survey, which said last-named commission shall continue to have authority with reference thereto after the act of 1910, chapter 217, shall take effect for the purpose of making the transfer and delivery hereby authorized and directed of the said accounts, records, contracts, obligations, unexpended balances, and all property and things appertaining to the same as aforesaid, in a proper and orderly manner for the protection of the interests of the State, to the state roads commission, and upon making such transfer the said State Geological and Economic Survey shall prepare and duly certify to the state roads commission a statement of all amounts and balances due from it under lawful contracts and accounts, and of all unexpended balances due to it, together with a list and description of its account and record books and property; and all acts of the General Assembly referring to the State Geological and Economic Survey as the commission set forth in section 19* of this article, and to any of its powers and duties transferred hereby to the state roads commission, shall thereafter be taken and held to refer to the state roads commission and the powers and duties conferred upon it. Whenever any board of county commissioners of any county in this State shall, by resolution, have declared their intention to cause any particular road, or section thereof, within such county, to be built or improved under the provisions of this sub-title, such board shall notify said state roads commission by written notice

*Although the figure "1" appears here in the official acts of 1910 instead of the figures "19", an examination of the original act as passed, shows that the figures "19" are correct.