351. A copy of the record of any will which the laws of the State or country where the same may be executed require to be recorded or registered, and which hath been recorded or registered agreeably to such laws, under the hand of the keeper of such record or register, and the seal of the court or office in which such record or register hath been made, or a copy of any will lodged for safe keeping in any office or court agreeably to the laws of the State or county as aforesaid, and certified as aforesaid, shall be good and sufficient evidence in any court in this State to prove such will. Where any will hath been or shall be executed in any other of the United States, or in any foreign country, and to give validity to which recording or registering is not or shall not be made necessary, proof of the execution thereof by the oath of the subscribing witnesses to the same, or any of them, taken before any court, judge or justice, or other officer of the State or country where such will hath been or may be executed, having by law authority to administer an oath, and a certificate under seal from the governor, chief magistrate, or a notary public of such State or country, that the court or officer before whom such oath shall be taken hath authority to administer the same, and that such oath hath been duly made before such court, judge, justice or officer, shall be good and sufficient evidence in any court in this State to prove such will.

A copy of a will from the records of another state is not admissible in evidence in this state for the purpose of proving title to land situated here. Beatty v. Mason, 30 Md. 411; Budd v. Brooke, 3 Gill, 232.
