

year for the augmentation of the sinking fund may be invested in the same manner and under the same conditions by the treasurer; every bond, certificate of stock or other security purchased for the sinking fund under the provisions of this article, and every coupon attached thereto shall at once be distinguished and identified by the treasurer in the presence of the comptroller by stamping in red ink across the face thereof the words "purchased for the sinking fund," and also, except in case of coupons, by writing thereon in red ink the date of its purchase and the signature of the treasurer; all securities purchased for the sinking fund shall be held by the treasurer to the credit of said fund in manner as prescribed by section 28 of this article, and the interest and coupons on all such securities maturing at a future day shall accrue to and be regularly and promptly collected for and credited to the sinking fund until such time as such securities shall mature and be redeemed respectively, or until the general assembly shall dispose of the same, or, in case of overdue securities of this State, until the same shall be burned by the finance committee and the ways and means committee as prescribed by section 23 of this article.

See art. 81, sec. 194.

1904, art. 95, sec. 27. 1888, art. 95, sec. 27. 1872, ch. 276, sec. 6.

27. The comptroller is hereby directed to draw his warrant on the treasurer for the payment of the bonds or certificates so taken up or purchased under the provisions of this article

Ibid. sec. 28. 1890, ch. 571, sec. 28.

28. All bonds, certificates of stock and other securities purchased or obtained by the treasurer for the use of the sinking fund, and all bonds, certificates of stock and other securities belonging to the State shall be deposited and kept in some safe deposit company in the city of Baltimore to be selected by the treasurer with the approval of the board of public works; the treasurer alone shall not be entitled to have access to the box, boxes, vault or vaults, where such securities shall be kept, but on all occasions when access to the same is to be had by him he shall be accompanied by the comptroller or by some other members of the board of public works designated by the governor for that purpose; in case the comptroller be unable to attend in any particular case, the box or boxes, vault or vaults, where such securities shall be kept shall be so constructed that two entirely different keys shall be required to gain access to said securities, one of which keys for each such box or vault shall be in the custody of the treasurer and the other in that of the comptroller.

Ibid. sec. 29. 1890, ch. 571, sec. 29.

29. The treasurer of the State and the comptroller of the treasury shall each forthwith procure a properly bound book to be used for the