

State required for sites for custom houses, courthouses, postoffices, arsenals or other public buildings whatever, or for any other purposes of the government.

1906, ch. 743, sec. 2.

32. Exclusive jurisdiction in and over any land so acquired by the United States shall be and the same is hereby ceded to the United States for all purposes except the service upon such sites of all civil and criminal process of the courts of this State, but the jurisdiction so ceded shall continue no longer than the said United States shall own such lands.

1906, ch. 743, sec. 3.

33. The jurisdiction ceded shall not vest until the United States shall have acquired the title to said lands by purchase, condemnation or otherwise; and so long as the said lands shall remain the property of the United States when acquired as aforesaid, and no longer, the same shall be and continue exempt and exonerated from all State, county and municipal taxation, assessment, or other charges which may be levied or imposed under the authority of this State.

1908, ch. 217.

34. The consent of the State of Maryland is hereby given to the acquisition by the United States, by purchase or gift, or by condemnation, according to due process of law, of such lands in the mountain region of Maryland as in the opinion of the federal government may be needed to the establishment of such a national forest reserve in that region; provided, that the State shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over such lands so far that civil process in all cases, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of the State against any person charged with the commission of any crime without or within said jurisdiction, may be executed in like manner as if this and the succeeding section had not been passed; and provided, that in all condemnation proceedings the rights of the federal government shall be limited to the specific objects set forth by the laws of the United States in regard to forest reserves, and that such proceedings shall be conducted in a manner not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of Maryland.

As to the state board of forestry, see art. 39 A.

1908, ch. 217.

35. The consent of the State of Maryland is hereby given to the passage by congress of such laws or ordinances as it may deem necessary or proper for the making and establishment of such rules and regulations as may, in its judgment, be necessary for the management, control and protection of such lands as may be from time to time acquired by the United States under the provisions of section 34.