

dred and thirty-one cubic inches; thirty-one and one-half gallons equaling one barrel, and two barrels are one hogshead; continual division of the gallon by two equaling half gallons, quarts, pints, half pints and gills.

1910, ch. 353, sec. 15 (p. 326).

14. The units or standards of measures of capacity for dry measure designated in this article shall be based on a dry bushel of two thousand, one hundred and fifty-six and four-fifths cubic inches, continual divisions of the bushel by two equaling half bushels, pecks, half pecks, quarter pecks, quarts, pints and half pints.

1910, ch. 353, sec. 16 (p. 327).

15. The standard of measure for buying and selling strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, currants, gooseberries, cranberries, whortle berries, cherries, plums, peanuts, kernels of other nuts, chinquapins, chestnuts, Brussels sprouts and all other berries, small fruits and vegetables shall be by dry measure.

1910, ch. 353, sec. 17 (p. 327).

16. The standard quart berry box or basket shall measure not less than five and one-quarter inches across the top, four and two hundred and sixteen thousandths across the bottom and three inches deep, all to be inside measurement.

1910, ch. 353, sec. 18 B (p. 327).

17. The standard box of apples shall be of the following dimensions: ten and one-half inches by eleven and one-half inches by eighteen inches, all inside measurements.

1910, ch. 353, sec. 18 (p. 327).

18. The standard double-headed barrel of apples, pears or quinces shall be of the following dimensions: Head diameter, seventeen and one-eighth inches; bulge, twenty and one-third inches, both inside measurements; length of stave, twenty-eight and one-half inches.

1910, ch. 353, sec. 19 (p. 327).

19. The standard barrel of Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, turnips, green peas, beans, cabbage, beets, parsnips, carrots, kale, spinach, brocoli, onions and all other truck or vegetables, shall be of not less than the following dimensions: Diameter at the top, seventeen inches; diameter at the bulge, eighteen and one-half inches, both inside measurements; length of stave, twenty-seven and one-half inches.

1910, ch. 353, sec. 20 (p. 327).

20. All standard barrels, baskets, boxes or packages used within this State, with the exception of strawberry and other small berry,