

1904, art. 99, sec. 36. 1896, ch. 293, sec. 2.

45. It shall be the duty of the said game warden and his deputy game wardens to prosecute all persons and corporations having in their possession any game or fish contrary to either the general or local game or fish laws of this State. It shall also be their duty to see that the game and fish laws are enforced and obtain information as to all violations of the said game and fish laws.

Ibid. sec. 37. 1896, ch. 293, sec. 3. 1904, ch. 346, sec. 3.

46. Whenever the game warden considers that it is necessary that he should have deputy game wardens appointed to assist him in more efficiently enforcing the game and fish laws of this State, he may apply to the governor to commission such persons as he may designate to act as deputy game wardens in the counties and cities of the State, to enforce the game and fish laws of this State, and carry out all the provisions of this sub-title; such persons may be appointed for the whole State or for such counties or cities as the governor in his commission shall designate. If the governor approve such persons he may appoint them deputy game wardens; such deputy game wardens shall not receive a salary from the State, cities or counties, but shall be paid such compensation out of the fines collected or otherwise, as the game warden may agree with them.

Ibid. sec. 38. 1896, ch. 293, sec. 4. 1904, ch. 346, sec. 4.

47. The governor shall issue to each person so appointed as deputy game warden a commission, and transmit such commission to the clerk's office of the circuit court for the county in which the deputy game warden so appointed has his legal residence, or to the office of the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city, if residing in Baltimore city, and he may revoke and annul any such appointment at his pleasure.

Ibid. sec. 39. 1896, ch. 293, sec. 5. 1904, ch. 346, sec. 5

48. Every deputy game warden so appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe before a justice of the peace of the county or city in which his commission may be received the oath or affirmation prescribed by the sixth section of the first article of the constitution of this State, which oath or affirmation shall be recorded in the clerk's office of such county or city. The game warden throughout the State, and also every deputy game warden so appointed, after the recording of the oath or affirmation to be by said game warden or deputy game wardens taken as aforesaid, shall, in the county, counties, city or cities for which such deputy game warden may be appointed, possess and exercise all the authority and powers held or exercised by constables at common law and under the statutes of this State, and also all authorities and powers conferred by law upon policemen in the city of Baltimore or other cities of the State, as far as
