A duplicate of each employment permit shall be filled out and kept on file by the Maryland Bureau of Statistics and Information or board of health or principal health officer of the county or city outside of Baltimore city, as the case may be.

1906, ch. 192, sec. 9.

9. Whoever employs a child in violation of the provisions of sections 4 to 13, and whoever having under his or her control a child, permits such child to be employed in violation of the provisions of said sections, shall for such offense be fined not less than five (5) nor more than fifty ($50) dollars, and whoever continues to employ any child in violation of the provisions of said sections, after being notified by an inspector authorized by said sections or an attendance officer of the public schools, shall for every day thereafter that such employment continues be fined not less than five (5) nor more than twenty ($20) dollars. A failure to produce to an inspector authorized by said sections or an attendance officer of the public schools any employment permit or list required by said sections shall be prima facie evidence of illegal employment of any person whose employment permit is not produced, or whose name is not so listed. Any corporation or employer retaining any employment permit in violation of the provisions of said sections shall be fined ten ($10) dollars. Every person authorized to sign the employment permit prescribed in said sections who knowingly certifies to any materially false statement therein shall be fined not more than fifty ($50) dollars. The chief of the Maryland bureau of statistics and information or any member of the board of health or principal health officer of any county or city outside of Baltimore city is hereby authorized to sign the employment permit mentioned herein and to administer the necessary oath without cost to the applicant.

10. The inspectors authorized by sections 4 to 13 and the attendance officers of the public schools may visit any office, establishment or place of business contemplated by said sections throughout the State of Maryland and city of Baltimore and ascertain whether any minors are employed therein contrary to the provisions of said sections, and they shall report any cases of such illegal employment or other violations of
