

Practising Without Being Admitted to the Bar.

1904, art. 10, sec. 18. 1900, ch. 699, sec. 16 A.

18. Any person who shall exact, demand, take or receive from any person whatsoever any fee, gratuity, gift or reward for his advice or service as an attorney at law without having been admitted to the bar agreeably to the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or confinement in jail for not more than thirty days, or both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

1908, ch. 595.

19. Any person who has not been duly admitted to the bar in this State, or elsewhere, or who, after having been so admitted, shall have been disbarred, who shall in any manner whatever represent himself to be entitled to practice law, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine of not more than $200 or confinement in jail for not more than six months.

State's Attorney.

1904, art. 10, sec. 19. 1888, art. 10, sec. 17. 1860, art. 11, sec. 18. 1821, ch. 126. 1862, ch. 177.

20. The State's attorney for each county and the city of Baltimore shall, in such county or city, prosecute and defend, on the part of the State, all cases in which the State may be interested.

The duties of the state's attorney are such only as are prescribed by our constitution and statutes. His duties do not extend to prosecuting before an officer holding an inquest or regulating the expenses thereof. Kilgour v. Evening Star Co., 96 Md. 29.

While suits for the state must generally be brought by the state's attorney, there are exceptions (see section 25). McCauley v. State, 21 Md. 569.

As to the appointment of assistant counsel to represent the state, see art. 26, sec. 7.

As to the duty of the state's attorney to institute proceedings of quo warranto, see art. 69, sections 4 and 5.

As to the duty of the state's attorney with reference to property left in trust for the purposes of education, see art. 25, sec. 126.

Ibid. sec. 20. 1888, art. 10, sec. 18. 1860, art. 11, sec. 19. 1795, ch. 74, sec. 2.

21. He shall, ex officio, on the application of the sheriff of his county or city, order execution to be issued for the recovery of all fines, penalties and forfeitures which shall be imposed by any court of record of this State, together with the costs accruing thereon.

Ibid. sec. 21. 1888, art. 10, sec. 19. 1860, art. 11, sec. 20. 1831, ch. 208, sec. 3.

22. In cases where recognizances to prosecute have been entered into, and before presentment or indictment found, the several courts of this State having jurisdiction of crimes and offences, upon the motion of the State's attorney, with the consent of the parties injured and accused, may compromise any assault and battery, the party accused
