

received; amount of deposits paid out, expenses, taxes and other items paid, and premium and other items charged off; number of accounts opened and closed during the year, and amount of interest credited to depositors; all of which shall be certified and sworn to by the treasurer before a notary public; and any corporate officer making oath to false statements in such report shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction shall be subject to the penalties provided by law for that offense. The president of the savings institution shall certify as to the correctness thereof, and whether in his judgment the loans on mortgages or collateral are properly secured.

37. An abbreviated statement as of date the last day of December of each institution so reporting shall be published, during the month of January in each year, in one or more newspapers in the city or county in which the institution is located over the names of the president and treasurer. This statement shall show: Amount of deposits received during the year, amount of interest and dividends received, amount of deposits paid out, including interest; amount of expenses paid, amount of taxes paid, amount of premium and other charges, book value of total amount of bonds and stocks owned, amount of loans on collaterals, amount of loans on real estate mortgages, book value of building occupied by the institution, if any, book value of other real estate owned, cash on hand and on deposit in banks and trust companies, amount due to depositors, number of deposit accounts opened, number of deposit accounts closed, number of deposit accounts existing.

38. In the month of October in every second year prior to the meeting of the General Assembly of Maryland the treasurer of every savings institution in the State shall deliver to the Bank Commissioner a written statement, sworn to by him or by the president, containing the name and the amount standing to his or her credit of every depositor who shall not have made any deposit therein or drawn any money upon their accounts for a period of twenty years next prior to the first day of September preceding; provided, that this section shall not apply to the deposit made by any person known to the said treasurer to be living. The Commissioner shall communicate the statements which shall be received by him in his next report to the Governor.

39. Any treasurer of a savings institution who shall neglect or fail to comply with the provisions of the preceding section shall be subject to a fine of five hundred dollars for each failure or neglect, to be recovered by indictment in the Circuit Court for the county where the savings institution may be located, or in the Criminal Court of Baltimore City, as the case may be.
