

	ART.	SEC.	PAGE
Inheritance—Cont'd:
DIVISION AND ELECTION:
Election; who and when entitled to:
Eldest son, etc., to have election to take estate and pay others their proportions in money...	46	44	1193
Next eldest child, etc., to elect if eldest refuses, and so on to youngest entitled.....	46	45	1194
Election or refusal may be in writing attested, or made in open court.....	46	50	1196
Husband may elect to take in right of wife.....	46	49	1195
If eldest male be minor, eldest female, if of age, may elect..	46	49	1195
If person entitled to elect be non compos or disqualified, right to pass to next person entitled to elect.....	46	48	1195
Notice to absent or non-resident heir failing to appear and elect.....	46	47	1195
Proceedings of, where estate consists of things indivisible in their nature.....	46	43	1193
Return where partition and allotment cannot be made without loss or injury to all parties... Requirements for such return.....	46	44	1193
Rights of third party entitled to interest of an heir to elect as to such share and invoke proceedings for such election....	46	46	1194
Proceedings of commissioners when equitable division practicable:
Allotment of lands or houses susceptible of division, to parties interested.....	46	40	1192
Fees and expenses of proceedings of: by whom payable....	46	64	1201
Guardian for interested minor to be appointed by court.....	46	35	1191
Notice of execution of their commission; how, when and where to be given.....	46	34	1190
Prima facie evidence that notice was given, what to be.....	46	37	1191
To non-resident parties interested; how, when and where to be given.....	46	36	1191
Partition between all parties interested according to their just proportion.....	46	38	1191
Return of proceedings after partition and allotment.....	46	42	1192
Appeal from allowed.....	46	42	1192
Appeal to court of appeals from.....	46	42	1193
New proceedings if rejected.	46	42	1193