

savings institution or trust company, in the event of the death of the trustee, the same or any part thereof and any interest due thereon may be paid to the person for whom the said deposit was made.

1910, ch. 219, sec. 72 (p. 30).

73. When a deposit has been made or shall hereafter be made in any bank, savings institution or trust company, in the names of two persons, payable to either, or payable to either or the survivor, such deposit or any part thereof, or any interest or dividend thereon, may be paid to either of said persons, whether the other be living or not; and the receipt or acquittance of the person so paid shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge to the bank for any payment so made.

1910, ch. 219, sec. 73 (p. 30).

74. Legal process against any banking institution may be served upon such institution in the manner now provided by law for such service on other corporations organized under the laws of this State.

See art. 23, sections 87 and 92.

1910, ch. 219, sec. 74 (p. 30).

75. No person, copartnership or corporation engaged in the banking business in this State, not subject to supervision and examination by the Bank Commissioner, and not required to make reports to him by the provisions of this article, shall make use of any sign at the place where such business is transacted, having thereon any artificial or corporate name or other words indicating that such place or office is the place or office of a banking institution as defined in this article; nor shall such person or persons make use of or circulate any letter-heads, billheads, blank notes, blank receipts, certificates, circulars or any written or printed or partly written and partly printed paper whatever having thereon any artificial or corporate name, or other word or words indicating that such business is the business of a banking institution. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this section, either individually or as an interested party in any copartnership or corporation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined in a sum not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not more than one year, or by both fine and imprisonment; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to an individual or copartnership who displays his individual or copartnership name as bank or bankers on its banking house or office, and upon its stationery and literature.

76. At all meetings of the stockholders of a bank or trust company for elections and other purposes, no person shall be allowed to vote on any share or shares of stock at such meetings, either in person or by proxy, unless the said person shall, if required by a stockholder, make oath before the judges of election, or other officers of the meeting, that
