

certificate shall be filed in the office of the insurance commissioner; and any officer swearing falsely in regard to the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be subject to the penalty or penalties prescribed for such offenses by the laws of this State.

1904, art. 23, sec. 164. 1894, ch. 260, sec. 123 A.

181. Associations of individuals, citizens of the United States, whether organized within the State, or elsewhere within the United States, formed upon the plan known as Lloyds, whereby each associate underwriter becomes liable for a proportionate part of the whole amount insured by a policy, may be authorized to transact insurance other than life in this State, upon the following conditions: That any such association organized in this State may be permitted to transact the insurance business upon the same terms and conditions as are by the laws of this State imposed upon an insurance company organized under the laws of this State, and any such association organized in any other of the United States may be permitted to transact its business in this State upon the same terms and conditions as are by the laws of this State imposed upon an insurance company incorporated in the State where such association was organized.

Ibid. sec. 165. 1888, art. 23, sec. 124. 1860, art. 56, sec. 30. 1858, ch. 432, sec. 6. 1872, ch. 388. 1874, ch. 400. 1876, ch. 248. 1878, ch. 106.

182. It shall not be lawful for any insurance company, association, partnership or corporation, organized under the laws of any other State of the United States, or by the government of the United States, or any foreign government, directly or indirectly, to take risks or transact any business of insurance, whether life, fire, marine or inland, or other insurance risks, in this State, unless it be fully organized and possessed of the amount of actual capital required of similar companies formed under the laws of this State, or until the following conditions have been fully complied with: There must be filed with the insurance commissioner, first, a copy of its charter, declaration of organization or deed of settlement, duly approved and certified by the secretary of state, insurance commissioner, or other proper officer of its own State or nation, with his certificate that the company is entitled to assume risks and issue policies therein; second, a power of attorney, appointing a citizen of this State, resident within this State, the agent or attorney for the company, upon whom process of law can be served; there must also be filed with the insurance commissioner a certified copy of the vote or resolution of the directors appointing such attorney, which appointment shall continue until another attorney be substituted. And said writing or power of attorney shall stipulate and agree, on the part of the company making the same, that any lawful process against said company, which is served on such agent, shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served on such company or association within this State; and also, that in case of the death or absence of the attorney so appointed, service of process may be made upon the insurance com-
