

and thereafter the proceedings shall be as prescribed in sections 82 to 86 (both inclusive) of this article; and upon the passage by the court of a final order of forfeiture the road shall vest in the county commissioners as hereinbefore provided.

Cited but not construed in Williamsport, etc., Turnpike Co. v. Startzman, 86 Md. 369.

1904, art. 23, sec. 356. 1900, ch. 549

395. No turnpike company or other road company in this State shall charge any toll for the travel of any bicycle, tricycle or other vehicle with rubber tires propelled by human muscles.

Uniformed Volunteer Companies.

Ibid. sec. 357. 1888, art. 23, sec. 245. 1868, ch. 471, sec. 78.

396. All uniformed volunteer companies shall be subject to the laws for the government of the militia of this State.

As to the militia, see art. 65.

Water Companies.

Ibid. sec. 358. 1888, art. 23, sec. 246. 1868, ch. 471, sec. 94. 1898, ch. 199.

397. Any corporation which may be formed under the provisions of this article for the purpose of supplying water shall have power to acquire, possess and use all such land, water rights and other property, and shall have all such power as may be necessary for the purposes for which said corporation was formed. And shall also have power to lay pipes and construct all such other works as shall be necessary or suitable to carry out the purposes of said corporation; provided, the assent of the municipal authorities of any incorporated town or city in which the operations of said corporation may be carried on shall be first had and obtained, or if the operations of any such company shall be carried on in any county outside of an incorporated town or city, the assent of the county commissioners of said county shall be first had and obtained; and all such works and the exercise of the powers hereby granted, shall, at all times, be subject to such reasonable regulations as said municipal authorities or said county commissioners, as the case may be, may from time to time prescribe; but nothing in this section shall authorize the incorporation of water companies in the city of Baltimore.

Where a company's original charter authorizes it to lay its pipes in the first district of Baltimore county without obtaining the assent of the county commissioners, and subsequently by an amendment to its charter, the company is authorized to extend its operations to other parts of Baltimore county, such company is not authorized to lay its mains under the highways of the portions of Baltimore county other than the first district, without the assent of the county commissioners. Baltimore County Water Co. v. Baltimore County, 105 Md. 163.

County commissioners have much greater powers over water companies laying pipes, than over gas companies, as shown by a comparison of this section with section 149. Consol. Gas Co. v. Baltimore County, 98 Md. 695 (decided prior to the act of 1910, ch. 55—see section 149).
