1904, art. 24, sec. 1. 1888, art. 24, sec. 1. 1860, art. 27, sec. 1. 1852, ch. 169, sec. 1. 1854, ch. 269, sec. 1.

1. The costs and expenses incident to the trial of actions, issues and presentments removed from one county to another, which are properly chargeable to the county, shall be borne and paid by the county from which the same are removed.

This section means that all costs and expenses incurred during the trial of a removed case or occasioned by such trial, shall be paid by the county where the case originated. This includes the cost of meals furnished the jurors and to the bailiff having the jurors in charge. Allegany County v. Howard County, 57 Md. 394.

The per diem of the jury (whether on the special panel or not) and of the sheriff, bailiff or other subordinate officials necessary to the court, come under the purview of this section. Howard County v. Frederick County, 30 Md. 434.

The act of 1854, ch. 269, compared with the local act of 1852, ch. 315. Purpose of the former. Baltimore City v. Baltimore County, 19 Md. 560.

For a case involving the act of 1823, ch. 67, see Price v. State, 8 Gill, 312. See art. 75, sec. 108.

Ibid. sec. 2. 1888, art. 24, sec. 2. 1860, art. 27, sec. 2. 1852, ch. 169, sec. 2. 1854, ch. 269, sec. 2.

2. The clerks of the several courts to which such cases may be removed shall make and keep a full and accurate account of the said costs and expenses, and shall certify and return the same as well to the county commissioners of the county where said cases originated as to the county commissioners of the county where the same were tried, setting forth in said return the names of the several parties to whom said costs and expenses are due, the several amounts thereof, and in what county said parties respectively reside.

The accounts which the clerks are required to keep and certify, are of the costs and expenses incident to the trials of all actions, etc., removed from one county to another which are properly chargeable to the county; such as are common to all counties of the state. Baltimore City v. Baltimore County, 19 Md. 561.

Cited but not construed in Howard County v. Frederick County, 30 Md. 434. See art. 17, sec. 37.
