

103. Breach of peace or hindrance of election in any way; penalty.
104. Interfering with registration or other officers; penalty.
105. Concealing or injuring ballot-box, report, etc.; penalty.
106. Officers of registration for unlawfully permitting persons to register; penalty.
107. Officers unlawfully absenting themselves during time of registration; penalty.
108. Falsely making certificate of nomination, etc.; penalty.
109. Removing supplies from booths, etc.; penalty.
110. Permitting ballot to be seen, except as otherwise provided; penalty.
111. Destroying or delaying the delivery of ballot; penalty.
112. Taking intoxicating drinks into registration offices during hours of election; penalty.
113. Selling liquors and other intoxicating drinks on election day; penalty.
114. Betting on result of election; penalty.
115. Marching troops in view of polling places; penalty.
116. Defects of notice, etc., no defense in prosecution.
117. Supervisors to aid in prosecution of offenses.

Compensation.

118. Pay of sheriffs, judges and other officers.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

119. All oaths to be certified.
120. Definition of the words "election" and "precinct." Computation of time for giving notices of registration or election.
121. Number of challenges of jurors to which State and defense are entitled.
122. Attorney-General to prepare instructions and blank forms necessary for use of officers of registration and of election. Such forms to be printed.

123. Instructions to voters applicable to Baltimore city and certain specified counties to be printed. Specimen ballots to be printed.
124. Instructions to voters applicable to other counties.
125. Boards of supervisors of election for counties may employ attorney. Compensation of such attorney. Other counsel for board of supervisors of election for Baltimore city. Salary of such counsel. Employment of additional counsel. Salary of such counsel.
126. Boundaries of election districts and wards. Duty of supervisors as to election districts.
127. Provision for examination of boundaries and sub-division of election districts.
128. Maps of wards and precincts to be furnished to officers of registration. Persons may be furnished copies upon payment of fifty cents per copy.

Contested Elections.

129. Contested elections for certain offices shall be decided by the house of delegates.
130. Judges of circuit courts for counties and superior court of Baltimore city to decide all other cases of contested elections.
131. Mode of proceeding and costs in such contests.
132. Right of appeal.
133. Time within which notice of such contest is to be given.
134. How notices shall be delivered.
135. Notice from justice of peace to be sent to the opposite party.
136. Attendance of witnesses.
137. What notice of justice of the peace shall contain.
138. Depositions shall be taken under oath.
139. Where such depositions shall be sent.
140. Examination of witnesses taken only in the manner prescribed to be admitted on trial.