

Electors of President and Vice-President.

1904, art. 33, sec. 144. 1888, art. 33, sec. 109. Ibid. sec. 68. Ibid. sec. 136.

146. On the first Tuesday next after the first Monday of November preceding the time fixed by law of the United States for choice of president and vice-president of the United States there shall be elected by general tickets as many electors of president and vice-president as this State shall be entitled to appoint.

This section referred to in determining whether an election was "a general election." Downs v. State, 78 Md. 131.

As to the proclamation by the governor of persons elected electors to vote for president, etc., see art. 41, sec. 15.

Ibid. sec. 145. 1888, art. 33, sec. 110. Ibid. sec. 69. Ibid. sec. 137.

147. Each citizen of this State entitled to vote for delegates to the general assembly shall have the right to vote for the whole number of electors, and the several persons, to the number required to be chosen, having the highest number of votes, shall be declared and deemed duly appointed electors.

Ibid. sec. 146. 1888, art. 33, sec. 111. Ibid. sec. 70. Ibid. sec. 138.

148. If any of the persons voted for as electors shall have an equal number of votes so as to defeat a choice between them, the governor shall determine by lot which of the persons having such equal number of votes shall be electors, so as to complete the whole number to which the State shall be entitled.

Ibid. sec. 147. 1888, art. 33, sec. 112. Ibid. sec. 71. Ibid. sec. 139.

149. The said election shall in all respects be conducted as other elections, and the returns thereof made and canvassed as hereinbefore directed.

Ibid. sec. 148. 1888, art. 33, sec. 113. Ibid. sec. 72. Ibid. sec. 140.

150. Upon the meeting of the persons returned elected as electors of president and vice-president, or of as many of said persons as may attend on the day appointed by the constitution and laws of the United States, the said electors who are present, before proceeding to perform the duties reposed in them, shall fill any vacancy which may exist in the said college of electors at such meeting, whether such vacancy be occasioned by absence or otherwise; and the said person or persons so appointed to fill such vacancy or vacancies shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of those proclaimed by the governor as duly elected electors of president and vice-president of the United States.

Ibid. sec. 149. 1888, art. 33, sec. 114. 1860, art. 35, sec. 72. 1896, ch. 202, sec. 141. Compiled Statutes U. S., vol. 1, pages 67-68, Act of Congress, February 3. 1887.

151. The electors for this State shall meet in the state house in the city of Annapolis and give their votes for president and vice-president
