

day to be fixed by any agreement between the governing bodies of said parties for the State not later than the first Monday of September in each year. All such political parties as aforesaid, shall hold their several primaries upon the same day. In case such governing bodies for the State shall fail to agree on an earlier date for holding such primary election, said primary elections shall be held on the first Monday of September in each year. Notice shall be given of the times and places of holding said primary elections by the several boards of supervisors of elections in the city of Baltimore and of the counties of this State, respectively, in the same way precisely as notice is required to be given for municipal and county elections held under the provisions of article 33 of the code of public civil laws.

1910, ch. 741, sec. 160 c (p. 116).

180. There shall be at every primary election in the city of Baltimore and in each county a voting place in each election precinct of each ward and of each election district, or in each election district which may not be divided into election precincts; and each of said voting places shall be selected by the board of supervisors of elections in Baltimore city and in the counties, as provided in section 11 of this article, with respect to general, municipal and county elections, and furnished in the same manner as at a general election.

1910, ch. 741, sec. 160 d (p. 116).

181. All such primary elections shall be conducted under the control of the several boards of supervisors of elections in Baltimore city and the counties, respectively, by the judges and clerks of elections appointed by them under the provisions of said article 33, for the conduct of elections held thereunder in Baltimore city and in the several counties of the State, and in the same manner as far as may be applicable as general elections are conducted under said article 33, except as may be hereinafter otherwise provided.

1910, ch. 741, sec. 160 e (p. 116).

182. As many different sets of official ballots shall be printed and supplied by the board of supervisors of elections at each polling place, and as many ballot boxes shall be used at each polling place, as there are separate party nominations, delegates, executives, or managing or executive bodies, to be voted for; and to prevent votes belonging to or acting with one political party from inadvertently or intentionally casting their ballot for the candidate for nomination for office, or election as delegate to any convention, or as executive or members of an executive or managing committee, of any other party, and to facilitate its being promptly detected if so cast, the ballots of the several parties, shall be printed upon opaque paper of different colors, to be determined by the several boards of supervisors of elections; and until after the next general registration in the counties, every person offering to vote
