

1904, art. 34, sec. 8. 1888, art. 34, sec. 6. 1870, ch. 403. 1892, ch. 593.

8. Dorchester, Caroline, Garrett, Montgomery and Prince George's counties are hereby excluded from the operation of the preceding sections.*

Vessels Adrift.

Ibid. sec. 9. 1888, art. 34, sec. 9. 1860, art. 36, sec. 9. 1753, ch. 10, sec. 2.

9. When any person shall discover, take up and secure any flat boat or other vessel driven from any place of mooring, landing, harbor or river, or from any other vessel, he shall, within ten days thereafter, give notice thereof to some justice of the peace for the county where such flat boat or other vessel is taken up and secured, and the justice shall deliver to the party giving such notice an advertisement describing in the best manner the build and marks of such flat boat or vessel and the name of such person and place of his abode, copies of which advertisement the said party shall, within ten days after the date thereof, cause to be set up in the most public places of the county, and within thirty days after such date procure the same to be inserted in some daily newspaper published in the city of Baltimore.

Ibid. sec. 10. 1888, art. 34, sec. 10. 1860, art. 36, sec. 10. 1753, ch. 10, sec. 2.

10. Upon proof of property by the oath of the owner of such flat boat or other vessel, or otherwise, before a justice of the peace, and upon payment of reasonable costs and charges for the same, the person so taking up and securing the same shall deliver the said flat boat or other vessel to the owner thereof.

Ibid. sec. 11. 1888, art. 34, sec. 11. 1860, art. 36, sec. 11. 1753, ch. 10, sec. 3.

11. If any person shall take and secure any flat boat or other vessel driven from any place of mooring, landing or harbor, or from any other vessel, and shall fail to comply with the provisions of the two preceding sections, he shall forfeit to the owner thereof the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered as small debts before a justice of the peace of the county where the party charged may reside.

Drift Logs.

Ibid. sec. 12. 1888, art. 34, sec. 12. 1870, ch. 229, sec. 1.

12. All persons claiming logs cast by wind and tide upon any shore bordering upon the Chesapeake bay and its tributaries are prohibited from removing the same without the payment to the owner of said shore of the sum of twenty-five cents for each log so removed.

This and the following sections are constitutional and valid. Henry v Roberts, 50 Fed. 902.
