

- ing of term "insurance company"; mutual or co-operative companies and religious and benevolent societies excepted.
193. Mutual, co-operative, assessment or stock companies; capital required; deposit with insurance commissioner; companies doing business in Maryland prior to January 1, 1914; reorganization of; capital, assets and legal reserve; maximum amount of certificates. Sick benefits; special reserve..
206. Publication of abstract of statements of companies; cost; newspapers selected; exception of co-operative companies.
215. Annual statement, publication of; exceptions; certified copies.

Insurance Broker.

219. License; fees; declaration to be included in application for.

Fraternal Beneficiary Associations.

229. Fraternal beneficiary associations defined.
230. Lodge system defined.
231. Representative form of government defined.
232. Law applicable to fraternal orders.
233. Benefits; reserve.
234. Beneficiaries.
235. Qualifications for membership.
236. Certificate, constitution, etc.; amendments.
237. Funds; mortuary obligations; deferred payments.
238. Investments.
239. Distribution of funds.
240. Charter; organization; number of applicants; discontinuance of business.
241. Existing associations; reincorporation; amendments.
242. Mergers and transfers.
243. Licenses.
244. Admission of foreign associations.
- 244A. Service of process; power of attorney.
- 244B. Office and meetings.

- 244C. Officers and members not personally liable.
- 244D. Waiver may be provided against.
- 244E. Benefits not subject to attachment or execution.
- 244F. Certified copies of constitution, etc.; to be filed with insurance commissioner; prima facie evidence.
- 244G & 244H. Examination of domestic associations; quo warranto proceedings; receivership; injunction.
- 244 I. Examination of foreign associations; suspension of licenses.
- 244J. Adverse publications prohibited; opportunity to answer.
- 244K. Revocation of licenses of foreign associations.
- 244L. Certain societies exempt from provisions of law.
- 244M. Funds exempt from taxation.
- 244N. Penalties for violations of law.

Mining Companies.

246. May construct railroads.

Railroad Companies.

293. Elevated roads; limitations upon construction of.
322. Railroads may make use of any motive power they desire; provisos.
- 325A. Rest days for transmitters of messages for movement of trains who work eight hours per day; compensation; emergencies; penalty.
- 330A-330B. Railroads to issue mileage books, good for first-class travel; damages recoverable for failure.

Religious Corporations.

355. Failure to file or defective filing of certificate of incorporation; how cured; deeds, etc.; record book.

Turnpike, Plank Road and Passenger Railway Companies.

392. Roads to be kept in repair; procedure in case of failure; appeal.