1904, art. 23, sec. 200. 1900, ch. 740, sec. 143B. 1914, ch. 504.

219. Any natural person, bona fide co-partnership or corporation applying therefor as hereinafter set forth, and paying to the Insurance Commissioner the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for the use of the State, and an additional sum of one dollar ($1.00) as a fee to the said Commissioner for issuing said license, may obtain a license for carrying on the business of an insurance broker; provided, however, that any natural person, bona fide co-partnership, or corporation residing in any of the Counties of this State may, upon payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00), for the use of the State, and an additional sum of one dollar ($1.00) as a fee to the said Commissioner for issuing said license, obtain a license to act as broker as to risks situated in the County only within which he, they or it may reside. A license issued to a co-partnership or corporation shall authorize only those members of the co-partnership, not exceeding three in number, who are specified in the license, or those officers, agents and employes of the corporation, not exceeding three in number, who are specified in the license, to act for the said co-partnership or for the said corporation thereunder. The Insurance Commissioner shall from time to time, upon application, and payment of an additional sum of fifty cents in each such case as a fee to the Insurance Commissioner, change the designations of members of co-partnerships, and of officers, agents and employes of corporations in licenses issued under this section to co-
