

in the year nineteen hundred and ten (1910), and the appointment of each of said commissioners shall be made and announced by the governor not less than ten days before said first Monday of May, nineteen hundred and ten. The governor, at the time of making and announcing the appointment of said three commissioners, as well as in the commission issued by him to each of them, shall designate which of said commissioners shall serve for the term of two years, and which shall serve for the term of four years, and which shall serve for the term of six years, as aforesaid, and also which shall be the chairman of said commission.

Upon the expiration of each of said terms, the term of office of each commissioner thereafter appointed shall be six years from the time of his appointment and qualification and until his successor shall qualify. Vacancies in said commission shall be filled by the governor for the unexpired term. Each commissioner shall be eligible for reappointment, in the discretion of the governor.

In the event that the term of office above ascertained and prescribed for each of said commissioners, or the term of office hereinafter prescribed for the general counsel, shall in respect to any of said commissioners or the general counsel be held and decided by the courts, and particularly by the court of appeals of Maryland, to be in excess of the period or term of office allowed or permitted by the constitution of Maryland, then, in such event, the term of office of each of said commissioners, or said general counsel, shall, and this sub-title hereby declares and determines that the term of office of each of them shall be for the period of two years from and after the first Monday of May, in the year nineteen hundred and ten (unless removed from office) and until their successors, respectively, qualify according to law.

The governor may remove any commissioner for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or misconduct in office, giving to him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being publicly heard in person or by counsel, in his own defense, upon not less than ten days' notice. If such commissioner shall be removed, the governor shall file in the office of the secretary of state a complete statement of all charges made against such commissioner, and his findings thereon, together with a complete record of the proceedings.

The salary of each of said Commissioners shall be three thousand dollars ($3,000) per annum, payable out of the State Treasury of the State of Maryland; and in addition to said sum of three thousand dollars per annum, each of said Commissioners shall also receive the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) per annum, which shall be paid out of its funds by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to the members of said Commission as employees of said municipal corporation.

The governor shall, upon the recommendation of the commission, appoint an attorney-at-law of the State of Maryland to be and act as the general counsel to said public service commission. The term of
