

the viewers; and it shall be the duty of the board to carefully review the report of the viewers and the objections filed thereto, and make such changes as are necessary to render substantial and equal justice to all the landowners in the district. If, in the opinion of the board, the cost of construction, together with the amount of damages assessed, is not greater than the benefits that will accrue to the land affected, the board shall confirm the report of the viewers, and declare the drainage district as established. If, however, the board finds that the cost of construction, together with the damages assessed, is greater than the resulting benefit that will accrue to the lands affected, the board shall dismiss the proceedings at the cost of the petitioners, and the sureties upon the bond so filed by them shall be liable for such costs.

81L. The clerk of the Board of County Commissioners shall provide a suitable book, to be known as the "Drainage Record," in which he shall transcribe every petition, motion, order, report, judgment or findings of the board in every drainage transaction that may come before it in such manner as to make a complete and continuous record of the case. Copies of all the maps and profiles are to be furnished by the engineer and marked by the clerk "Official Copies," which shall be kept on file by him in his office, and open to inspection.

81M. After the said drainage district shall have been declared established, and the survey and plan therefor approved, the Board of County Commissioners shall appoint three persons who are freeholders, who shall be designated as the Board of Drainage Commissioners for that district. These commissioners shall be appointed subject to the written approval of a majority of the landowners in the district, and any vacancy occurring shall be filled in like manner.

The three drainage commissioners when appointed shall be and shall organize as a corporate body under the name and style of "The Board of Drainage Commission of District," with the right to hold property, and convey the same, to sue and be sued, and shall possess corporate powers. They shall organize by electing from among their number a chairman and a vice-chairman. They shall elect a secretary either within or without their body. The treasurer of the county in which the proceeding was instituted shall be ex officio of such drainage commissioners. Such board of drainage commissioners shall adopt a seal, which they may alter at pleasure.

81N. The Board of Drainage Commissioners shall appoint a competent person as superintendent of construction. Such person shall furnish a bond to be fixed and approved by the commissioners, conditioned upon the honest and faithful performance of his duties, such bond to be
