

County. Under this section, the determination of what the public convenience does or does not require is left to the judgment of the county commissioners, and they are to determine the matter in the exercise of their discretion. It is not a matter with which the courts have anything to do or can in any manner control, unless the action of the county commissioners was arbitrary or induced by corruption or fraud. The words "public landing," defined. Chaney v. Anne Arundel County, 119 Md. 389.

106.

See note to section 105.

Farmers' Co-operative Demonstration Work.

1914, ch. 427.

109. The Board of County Commissioners of the respective Counties of this State may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered in their discretion to appropriate and use, under such rules and regulations as they may prescribe, any sum or sums of money not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) per year for Farmers' Co-operative Demonstration Work in each of their respective Counties, along the same line as this work is or may be conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture or the Maryland Agricultural College, and may conduct such work jointly in the respective Counties with the agents and representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture, or the Maryland Agricultural College, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the agent of the Department of Agriculture of the United States or the agent of the Maryland Agricultural College and the Board of County Commissioners.

Whenever the Department of Agriculture of the United States and the Maryland Agricultural College shall enter into co-operative relations for conducting Farmers' Co-operating Demonstration Work in the Counties of Maryland, the County Commissioners of the respective Counties may co-operate with both the United States Department of Agriculture and the Maryland Agricultural College in providing funds and conducting the work in such manner as may be agreed upon by the agents of the Co-operative Institutions. Provided that not more than One Thousand Dollars per year be appropriated for this purpose by the County Commissioners of any one County.

As to "Agriculture," see article 2A.