

1904, art. 27, sec. 157. 1892, ch. 596, sec. 12.

174. No itinerant vendor shall advertise, represent or hold forth any sale as an insurance, bankrupt, insolvent, assignee, trustee, testator, executor, administrator, receiver, wholesale or manufacturer's or closing out sale, or as a sale of any goods damaged by smoke, fire, water or otherwise, or in any similar form, unless he shall before so doing state under oath, either in the original application for a State license or in a supplementary application subsequently filed, and copy on the license all the facts relating to the reasons and character of such special sale so advertised or represented, including a statement of the names of the persons from whom the goods, wares and merchandise were obtained, the date of delivery to the person applying for the license and the place from which said goods, wares and merchandise were last taken, and all details necessary to exactly locate and fully identify all goods, wares and merchandise to be so sold.

Ibid. sec. 158. 1892, ch. 596, sec. 13.

175. Any false statement in an application, either original or supplementary, for a license, and any failure on the part of any licensee to comply with all the requirements of the last preceding section shall subject said itinerant vendor to the same penalty as if he had no license.

Ibid. sec. 159. 1892, ch. 596, sec. 14.

176. All State licenses issued under this sub-title shall expire on the first day of May next succeeding the date of their issue, and may be, if so desired, surrendered at any time prior thereto for cancellation.

Ibid. sec. 160. 1892, ch. 596, sec. 15.

177. Upon the expiration and return or surrender of each State license, the respective clerks of the courts aforesaid shall cancel the same, endorse the date of delivery and cancellation thereon, and place the same on file. He shall then hold the special deposit of such licensee, hereinbefore mentioned for the period of sixty days, and, after satisfying any and all claims made upon the same under the section next following, shall return said deposit, or such portion of the same, if any, as may remain in his hands, to the licensee depositing it.

Ibid. sec. 161. 1892, ch. 596, sec. 16.

178. Each deposit made with the respective clerks of the courts aforesaid shall be subject, so long as it remains in his hands, to attachment and execution in behalf of creditors whose claims arise in connection with business done in the State, and the respective clerks of the courts aforesaid may be held to answer as garnishee in any civil action in contract or tort brought against any licensee, and he shall pay over under order of court, or upon execution, such sum of money as he may be chargeable with upon his answer or otherwise, after deducting reasonable counsel fees and costs. Said deposit shall also be subject to the payment of any and all fines and penalties incurred by the licensee through violations of the several sections of this sub-title, and the clerk
