

of the court in which, or the trial justice by whom such fine or penalty is imposed shall thereupon notify the respective clerks of the courts aforesaid of the name of the licensee against whom such fine or penalty is adjudged and the amount of such fine or penalty, and the clerk of the court, if he has in his hands a sufficient sum deposited by such licensee, shall pay the sum so specified to said clerk or trial justice, and if the clerk shall not have a sufficient sum so deposited, he shall make payment as aforesaid of so much as he has in his hands. All claims upon the deposit shall be satisfied after judgment, fine or penalty in the order in which notice of the claim is received by the respective clerks of the courts aforesaid, until all such claims are satisfied or the deposit exhausted, but no notices filed after the expiration of the sixty days' limit aforesaid shall be valid. No deposits shall be paid over by the respective clerks of the courts aforesaid to licensees so long as there are any outstanding claims or notices of claims against them, respectively, unless the clerk is satisfied that such claims will not be prosecuted to final judgment, or that no fine or penalty will be imposed.

179. It shall be the duty of the respective sheriffs, constables, police or prosecuting officers in each county and city in this State to see that the provisions of the several sections of this sub-title are complied with, and to prosecute for violations of the same. All such officers shall have power to demand the production of the proper State and local license from any itinerant vendor advertising or actually engaged in business, and any failure to produce such license shall be prima facie evidence against such vendor that he has none.

Fraud—Market Garden Boxes.

180. It shall be unlawful for any person, persons, firm or corporation, not the owner thereof, to use or have in his, her or its possession any garden box, market box or bushel box used as a container of farm or garden produce, when such box, garden box, market box or bushel box is stamped, stenciled, or marked in plain letters with the name of the owner or owners thereof, unless such person, persons, firm or corporation using or having the same in his, her or its possession, shall first have obtained the express privilege or permission of the owner or owners of such bushel box, market box or garden box, or from his, her or their duly authorized agent or agents, to use or have in his, her or its possession such bushel box, market box or garden box as aforesaid. Any person, persons, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of the several counties of this State or the city of Baltimore, shall be fined not more than twenty-five dollars for each such offense.
