1904, art. 27, sec. 245. 1894, ch. 302, sec. 149A. 1896, ch. 467.
1914, ch. 779, sec. 245.

268. No room or apartment in any tenement or dwelling house, and no part of any tenement or dwelling house, shall be used for the purpose of manufacturing, in whole or in part, altering, repairing or finishing therein, any articles whatsoever, except for the exclusive use of the person so using any part of such tenement or dwelling house, or the immediate members of his household, without a license therefor as provided in this section.

Application for such license shall be made to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics and Information by any member of a family desiring to do such work in any room or apartment of a tenement or dwelling house. Such application shall designate the location of the room or apartment, the number of persons to be employed therein, the street and number of and the full name and address of the owner of the building in which the room or apartment is located, and shall be signed by the applicant. Application blanks shall be prepared and furnished by the Bureau of Statistics and Information in such form as the Chief thereof may determine.

Upon receipt of such application the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics and Information shall consult the records of the local health department or board or other appropriate local authority charged with the duty of sanitary inspection, and if such records show the presence of any infectious, contagious or communicable disease, or the existence of any unsanitary conditions in or about such room or apartment, the Chief of said Bureau may, without making an inspection of the premises, deny such application for a license until such time as the records of the said department, board or other local authority show that the said premises are free from all such infectious, contagious or communicable disease and from all unsanitary conditions. Before, however, any such license is granted, an inspection of the room or apartment sought to be licensed must be made by the duly authorized inspector of the Bureau of Statistics and Information and a statement must be filed in said bureau as a matter of public record to the effect that the records of the local health department or board or other local authority charged with the duty of sanitary inspection do not show the existence of any infectious, contagious or communicable disease or of any unsanitary conditions in or about said room or apartment. Such statement must further
