1904, art. 27, sec. 248. 1894, ch. 302, sec. 149D. 1914, ch. 779, sec. 248.

271. Any license granted under Sections 268 and 269 may be revoked by the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics and Information if the licensee thereunder, or his or its duly authorized agent, shall fail, refuse or neglect to comply with any of the conditions under which same was granted, or with any law relating to the premises licensed, or if the health of the community or of the persons employed thereunder requires it.*

Ibid. sec. 249. 1902, ch. 101, sec. 149EE.

272. No room or apartment in any tenement or dwelling-house shall be used except by the immediate members of the family living therein, which shall be limited to a husband and wife, their children, or the children of either, for the manufacture of coats, vests, trousers, knee-pants, overalls, cloaks, hats, caps, suspenders, jerseys, blouses, waists, waistbands, underwear, neckwear, furs, furtrimmings, furgarments shirts, purses, feathers, artificial flowers, cigarettes, or cigars. No room or apartment in any tenement or dwelling-house shall be used by any family or part of family until a permit shall first have been obtained from the chief of the bureau of industrial statistics, stating the maximum number of persons allowed to be employed therein. Such permit shall not be granted until an inspection of such premises has been made by the inspector or his assistant, named by the chief of the bureau of industrial statistics, and such permit may be revoked by the said chief of the bureau of industrial statistics at any time the health of the community or those employed or living therein may require it. No person, firm or corporation shall work in, or hire or employ any person to work in any room or apartment in any building, rear building, or building in the rear of a tenement or dwelling-house, at making in whole or in part, any of the articles mentioned in this section, without first obtaining a written permit from the chief of the bureau of industrial statistics stating the maximum number of persons allowed to be employed therein. Such permit shall not be granted until an inspection of such premises has been made by the factory inspector or his assistant, named by the chief of the bureau of industrial statistics, and such permit may be revoked by the chief of the bureau of industrial statistics at any time the health of the community or of those so employed may require it. All families, persons, firms or corporations now engaged in such manufacture in such tenement or dwelling-house or other building, shall apply for such permit on or before July 1, 1902, and annually there-
