

after at the same date. The said permit shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the room, or one of the rooms to which it relates. Every person, firm or corporation contracting for the manufacture of any of the articles mentioned in this section, or giving out the incomplete materials from which they or any of them are to be made, or to be wholly or partially finished, or employing persons in any tenement or dwelling-house, or other building, to make, wholly or partly finish, the articles mentioned in this section, shall keep a written register of the names and addresses of all persons to whom such work is given to be made, or with whom they may have contracted to do the same. Such register shall be produced for inspection, and a copy thereof shall be furnished on demand made by the chief of the bureau of industrial statistics or one of his deputies.

This and the following sections held constitutional and valid, under the police power, as health regulations. If a statute passed for the protection of health, morals or safety has no real or substantial relations to those objects, the courts will declare it void. The reasonableness of ordinances passed by a municipality in pursuance of legislative authority may be enquired into by the courts. This and the following sections apply to tenements, etc., where garments are manufactured for sale. State v. Hyman, 98 Md. 611.
