

Larceny—Dogs.

1904, art. 27, sec. 266. 1888, art. 27, sec. 161. 1882, ch. 110.

290. Every person convicted of feloniously taking and carrying away any dog or bitch, or as accessory thereto before or after the fact shall be deemed guilty of the crime of larceny, and shall restore the dog or bitch to the owner thereof, or shall pay to him the value thereof, and shall be sentenced to confinement in jail for not more than three months.

Larceny—Goods, Wares and Merchandise Entrusted to be Manufactured.

Ibid. sec. 267. 1888, art. 27, sec. 162. 1888, ch. 396. 1894, ch. 593.

291. Any person who shall be entrusted with any goods, wares, materials or merchandise, or who shall receive or obtain such goods, materials or other property from the owner thereof for the purpose of manufacturing, working up or converting the same into garments, wearing apparel or other articles of merchandise, or of altering the same or completing the manufacture thereof after the same may have been returned to the said owner in an unsatisfactory condition, and shall after receiving the same fraudulently sell, pawn, pledge or in any other manner dispose of said goods or the product thereof, or convert the same to his own use, or fail or refuse to deliver the same to the said owner after an offer on the part of said owner to pay to said person the full amount due to said person for his services in reference to said manufacture or alteration, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any tribunal of competent jurisdiction shall be fined not more than fifty dollars, or be sentenced to imprisonment in the house of correction for not more than six months, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

Ibid. sec. 268. 1888, art. 27, sec. 163. 1888, ch. 396.

292. Any person or persons who shall purchase, receive or accept any such goods, materials or merchandise as are described in the preceding section, for their own use, or advance money or other property upon the security thereof, knowing them to be stolen or misappropriated, as set out in the preceding section, shall be deemed guilty of receiving stolen goods, and shall be punished in the manner provided for a misdemeanor in this article.

Larceny—Horses.
