

in any such county or city; but such presentment, indictment and trial shall be in the same county and city in which such justice of the peace shall be.

This section applied in overruling a plea to the jurisdiction. Taylor v. State, 79 Md. 135.

1908, ch. 408.

1908, ch. 487.

489.* The jurisdiction of every county bounded at any point by navigable waters shall extend from the shore to the inside of the channel, which shall be regarded to be the center of said waters, except where said waters adjoin neighboring States, in which case the jurisdiction of said counties shall continue to the ultimate limits of the State at the place in question; provided, however, that nothing in this or the two following sections shall be construed as changing such rights as the State of Maryland may have on or under such waters.

1908, ch. 487.

490. The center of the waters aforesaid shall be deemed to be as represented on the county maps issued under authority of the Laws of Maryland, 1896, Chapter 51, and the Laws of Maryland, 1898, Chapter 129, and said maps shall be admissible as evidence as to the location of the boundary or boundaries aforesaid.

1908, ch. 487.

491. Certified copies of said county maps shall be filed with the clerks of the several courts for all the several counties of Maryland, and also with the Board of County Commissioners of said counties; said maps to be regarded as official and authoritative.
