Ibid. sec. 530. 1888, art. 27, sec. 372. 1866, ch. 156. 1870, ch. 391. 1872, ch. 218. 1880, ch. 173. 1910, ch. 302 (p. 393).

593.* The name of The Female House of Refuge is hereby changed to the name of The Maryland Industrial School for Girls, which is hereby fixed and established in perpetuity as the corporate name of said institution.

All legacies now existing or hereafter given by persons dying, after April 7, 1910, and all appropriations made, or hereafter to be made, by the General Assembly of Maryland, or by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and intended for this institution, but given or made by its former name of The Female House of Refuge, instead of its name as fixed by this section, shall remain and inure to the benefit of The Maryland Industrial School for Girls.

The affairs of the said institution shall be managed by thirty directors, fifteen of whom shall be chosen annually by the members on the second Monday in January, and five of whom shall be appointed annually in the month of January, by the Mayor of the City of Baltimore, with the advice and consent of the Council of said city, and ten of whom to be severally resident of some county in this State, shall be appointed biennially in the month of January, by the Governor of the State, with the advice and consent of the Senate. And in case of failure to appoint or elect at the times hereinbefore mentioned, they shall be appointed or

*Although the act of 1910, chapter 302 (p. 393), does not refer to section 530 of article 27 of the Code of 1904, it seems to be a complete substitute therefor, and is so codified.
