

18.

Cited but not construed in Abramson v. Horner, 115 Md. 235.

40.

By this section and section 64, a distinction is made between the record of a foreign judgment and that of a domestic judgment. When it is necessary that a complete record of a foreign judgment should be produced to make it evidence. Papers certified by the clerk alone cannot be said to be such an exemplification of the record as is authorized by this section. Mundy v. Jacques, 116 Md. 21.
