

ARTICLE XLI.

GOVERNOR.

Advisory Parole Board.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 6. Appointment of; term of office; vacancies; removal. 7. Oath of members. 7A. Powers of Board; witnesses, refusal to testify; perjury. 7B. Salaries; Secretary; employees. 7C. Governor may commute or change sentences and issue conditional pardon or remission of time. 7D. Where conditional pardon granted, Governor sole judge of compliance with conditions. | 7E. Breach of conditional pardon; remainder of sentence to be served. 7F. Board to collect information for Governor as to advisability of conditional pardon. 7G. Supervision by Board, of persons conditionally pardoned, paroled or when sentence is suspended; report to Governor and court. 7H. Appropriations. |
|--|---|

Advisory Parole Board.

1904, art. 41, sec. 6. 1888, art. 41, sec. 6. 1860, art 42, sec. 7. 1787, ch. 17, sec. 2. 1795, ch. 82, sec. 2. 1870, ch. 306. 1914, ch. 500.

6. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint an Advisory Board to be known as the Advisory Board of Parole, to consist of three members, who shall each be not less than thirty years of age, and who shall each have been, for the four years next preceding his appointment, a resident and qualified voter of the State of Maryland. And be it enacted, That the members of the Advisory Board of Parole hereunder shall be Charles D. Reid, Samuel J. Twilley and Dr. J. Hubert Wade, and they are hereby appointed and constituted as members of said Board, to serve respectively for the terms of six, four and two years, from April 16, 1914, and until their respective successors shall qualify, and the said Charles D. Reid shall be President or Chairman thereof. One of said Board shall hold office for six years from the beginning of the term of his office and until his successor shall qualify; and one of said Board shall hold office for four years from the beginning of his term of office and until his successor shall qualify; and one of said Board shall hold office for two years from the beginning of his term of office and until his successor shall qualify. On the expiration of each of said terms, the term of office of each member of said Advisory Board shall be six years from the time of his appointment and qualification and until his successor shall qualify.

As to the Executive Department, see article 2 of the Md. Constitution.