

carrying out of the provisions of this sub-title, and to prescribe the powers and duties of all persons employed or appointed by said Board.

1914, ch. 500.

7B. The said Advisory Board of Parole shall each receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500) per annum and shall have power to appoint, and remove at pleasure, not more than four parole officers for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this sub-title, each of whom shall receive compensation, to be fixed by said Advisory Board of Parole, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars per annum, to be paid from the moneys appropriated under the authority of this sub-title. The Advisory Board of Parole shall also, in its discretion, appoint and remove at pleasure other persons to serve as parole officers without pay. And the said Advisory Board shall have power to appoint and remove at pleasure a secretary, at a salary not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars per annum.

7C. The Governor upon giving the notice required by the Constitution may commute or change any sentence of death into confinement in the Penitentiary or in the Maryland House of Correction or banishment, for such period as he shall think expedient; and on giving such notice, he may commute or change the sentence of any person from imprisonment in the Maryland Penitentiary to imprisonment for a like or for a less period in the Maryland House of Correction. And, on giving such notice, he may pardon any person, convicted of crime, on such conditions as he may prescribe, or he may upon like notice remit any part of the time for which any person may be sentenced to imprisonment, on such like conditions without such remission operating as a full pardon to any such person.

1914, ch. 500.

7D. In any case in which the Governor may issue a conditional pardon to any person, the Governor, in the absence of any provision to the contrary expressed therein, shall be the sole judge of whether or not the conditions of said pardon have been breached, and the determination by the Governor, that the conditions of such pardon have been violated by the person receiving the same, shall be final and not subject to review by any Court of this State.

1914, ch. 500.

7E. In any case in which the Governor may release any person by a conditional pardon and thereafter, on breach of any condition therein, revoke said conditional pardon, the person so released on such conditional pardon shall be required, unless otherwise ordered by the Governor, to serve the unserved portion of the sentence originally imposed upon him; and said person, unless otherwise ordered by the Governor, shall not be considered as serving any portion of his original sentence during the time he is released by virtue of such conditional pardon.
