

- which may become prejudicial to health, may be ordered to be connected with water supply or sewerage system if there is one available, and spring, etc., abandoned; board may prevent construction of well, cesspool, privy, etc.; condemnation of structures.
282. Board of Health to have supervision over water for potable purposes and method of bottling, etc.; permits; water from outside of Maryland.
283. Board of Health to have supervision over ice used for domestic purposes; permits; place of storage and handling of; rules and regulations.
284. Records to be kept by counties, cities, corporations, etc., supplying water, ice or sewerage service; access to buildings.
285. Permits revocable and subject to change after notice; permits issued for a specified period.
286. Counties, cities, corporations, etc., may appeal from order of Board of Health; procedure; action to have precedence; appeal to Court of Appeals.
287. Penalties for failing to comply with order of Board of Health or of court on appeal.
288. Board of Health may employ experts, engineers, etc.; expenses thereof; compensation.
289. Appropriation.
- Osteopathy.
- 290-293. Board of Osteopathic Examiners; appointment; qualifications; term of office; vacancies; death; meetings; officers.
294. Examinations, how conducted; report and license.
295. Fees; compensation and expenses of board.
296. License to persons practicing osteopathy in Maryland on April 13, 1914; requirements; fee; records of board.
297. License to persons beginning practice of osteopathy in Maryland after April 13, 1914; requirements; persons practicing in other states; examination, result of to be reported; subsequent examinations.
298. What schools regarded as reputable; rights of osteopaths practicing on April 13, 1914, preserved.
299. Persons licensed by examiners of other states; requirements; credentials of candidates for examination; preliminary education; license to be filed with court clerks; removal; registrations, fee for.
300. Definition of osteopathy; scope of license; false representations, penalty for.
301. Osteopaths subject to regulations for control of contagious diseases. Law does not authorize acceptance of birth or death certificate from osteopath.
302. No one may practice without license and registration; penalty; obtaining license by false representations.
303. Refusal, revocation and suspension of license, causes of; accused to have copy of charges; hearing; appeal; reinstatement. Petition alleging that person has been improperly registered; answer; jury trial. Police Commissioners of Baltimore City and sheriffs of counties to see that osteopaths registered; duty of secretary of board of examiners. Funds of board, expenditure of. Practicing in name of another; penalty.