

The Governor shall, in his first appointment, designate the number of years for which each appointee shall serve. In case of vacancy, by death or otherwise, there shall be appointed, in like manner, a person to serve through such unexpired term. Each person who shall be appointed to serve on said Board of Osteopathic Examiners shall receive a certificate of appointment from the Secretary of State. Each and every member of said board shall, within 10 days after appointment, on being apprised of the same, take and subscribe an oath or affirmation before the Secretary of State to faithfully and impartially perform the duties of said office. The Board of Examiners shall make and adopt all necessary rules, regulations, and by-laws, not inconsistent with the Constitution and Laws of the State or of the United States, whereby to perform the duties and transact the business required under the provisions of this sub-title.

293. The first meeting of the said Board of Osteopathic Examiners shall be held on the first Tuesday of June, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, at Baltimore, Maryland, and subsequent meeting for organization, in June, annually; suitable notice in the usual form being given by the Secretary of the Board to each of the members thereof, specifying the time and place of meeting.

At the first meeting of the Board, and at each annual meeting in June, an organization shall be effected by the election from its membership of a President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer.

1914, ch. 786.

294. For the purpose of examining applicants for license, the said Board of Osteopathic Examiners shall hold two stated meetings in each year, due notice of which shall be made public, at such times and places as the Board may determine. At said meetings a majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum thereof; but the examination may be conducted by a committee of one or more members of the Board of Examiners, duly authorized by said Board; but no license to practice osteopathy shall be granted on an affirmative vote of less than three. Said examinations shall be conducted in writing, in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners, and may be supplemented by practical examinations at the bedside in available eleemosynary or other institution, the laboratory, and by practical tests upon the human cadaver, and shall embrace the subjects named in Section 297 of this Article. After each such examination the committee having charge thereof, shall, without unnecessary delay, act upon the same. An official report of such action, signed by each acting member of said committee of examiners, stating the examination average of each candidate in each branch, the general average, and the result of the examination, whether successful or unsuccessful, shall be transmitted to the
