1908, ch. 103, sec. 49. 1912, ch. 851, sec. 49.

48. Any man who has served the period of his original enlistment may be re-enlisted with the right to be granted his discharge at the expiration of any year in said term of re-enlistment. No man above the age of forty-five shall be re-enlisted except by permission of the commanding officer of the brigade or naval brigade and upon the recommendation of his company or division commander.*

1908, ch. 103, sec. 62. 1914, ch. 663, sec. 49.

61. Camps of instruction for the first brigade and cruises for the naval brigade shall be held at such times and for such periods as the Governor as Commander-in-Chief may direct; provided, however, the camps of instruction herein authorized are held within the limits of the State.

1908, ch. 103, sec. 63. 1910, ch. 204, sec. 63 (p. 198). 1912, ch. 851, sec. 63.
1914, ch. 663, sec. 50.

62. The forces prescribed and organized in this Article shall be considered in the actual service of the State and the members thereof shall be subject to all military laws, orders and regulations prescribed for the government thereof, and all military offenses shall be considered, and they are hereby declared to be offenses against the general police regulations of the State and shall be punished by fine or imprisonment as hereinafter provided. Except when on duty in time of war, insurrection, invasion, public danger or to aid the civil authorities on account of any breach of the peace, tumult, riot, resistance to the power of the State, or any imminent danger thereof, and also in any cases not otherwise covered, commissioned officers may be tried by the appropriate military courts provided for in this Article, for non-attendance without excuse at any drill, parade, encampment, meeting for instruction, or other duty ordered by competent authority, or for such other military offenses as may be declared to be such by orders or regulations issued by the Governor as Commander-in-Chief which, when issued, shall have the force and effect of law, or for such military offenses as are recognized and provided for in the Articles of War,

*The act of 1914, chapter 672, strikes out the designation "Naval Brigade" wherever it appears in article 65 of the code, and substitutes therefor the designation "Naval Militia."

†Some difficulty was experienced in codifying the act of 1914, chapter 663. A careful study of the act, however, seems to make reasonably clear the intention of the act, which is carried out in its codification.
