

Army and Naval Regulations of the United States now in force, or that may hereafter be adopted. Provided, however, that in times of peace the penalty upon conviction of any of the offenses specified or provided for in this Section or of the Articles of War or of the Army and Naval Regulations of the United States shall not exceed those provided for in this Article.

1908, ch. 103, sec. 67. 1914, ch. 663, sec. 54.

66. Officers and enlisted men may be warned for duty as follows: either by stating the substance of the order or by reading the order to the person warned, or by leaving a copy of such order at the last known place of abode or business, or by mailing to the post-office nearest thereto. Such warning may be given by any officer or non-commissioned officer. The officer or non-commissioned officer giving such notice or warning shall, if required, make a return thereof containing the name of the person warned and the time, place and manner of warning, if required by the officer issuing the order; such return may be verified by his oath, which may be administered by any commanding officer. Such verified returns shall be as good evidence on the trial of any person returned as a delinquent of the facts therein stated as if such officer or non-commissioned officer had testified to the same before a military court on such trial. Every commanding officer shall make like return, on honor and with like effect, of every delinquency or neglect of duty of his officers and non-commissioned officers and also of every enlisted man who shall refuse or neglect to perform such military duty as may be required.

67. Repealed. (1914, ch. 663.)

1908, ch. 103, sec. 69. 1914, ch. 663, sec. 55.

68. The military courts of this State shall be:
 General Courts-martial;
 Special Courts-martial;
 Summary Courts;
 Courts of Inquiry.

The constitution and jurisdiction of courts-martial: The form and manner in which the proceedings of military courts shall be conducted and recorded, and the forms of oaths and affirmations taken in the administration of military law by such courts; the limits of punishment of officers and enlisted men when on duty, as provided in Section twelve of this Article, and the proceedings in revision shall be governed by the Articles of War and the Law and Proceedings of the Courts-martial of the United States.

1908, ch. 103, sec. 77. 1910, ch. 204, sec. 77 (p. 200). 1912, ch. 851, sec. 77.

76. Each officer and enlisted man ordered for duty by the Governor or under his authority by the commanding officer of the brigade or the Naval Brigade, shall receive the pay herein specified for every
