

commanding officer, or treasurer or fiscal officer designated by him as aforesaid, shall make quarterly reports, under oath, with vouchers, to the adjutant-general, setting forth the details of the disbursements of said moneys); but before any such allotments are made, all the expenses pertaining to the rent, repairs and maintenance of armories for the several organizations, and authorized by the adjutant-general, shall be deducted from the amount appropriated as aforesaid; and any part of the allotments made as aforesaid remaining unexpended at the end of any fiscal year shall be expended for the benefit of the organization to which it was allotted, in such manner as may be suggested by the commanding officer of such organization forwarded through military channels, provided, that all warrants for such moneys shall pass down through military channels, and that no warrant shall be issued to any regiment or separate organization except on the requisition of the commanding officer thereof; and, provided further, that such requisition shall be forwarded through military channels; proper allowance, however, shall be made to the headquarters of the First Brigade and of the respective regiments and separate organizations for necessary and proper outlays and expenses in inspecting said commands, and in the maintenance of discipline and efficiency.*†

1908, ch. 103, sec. 84. 1914, ch. 663, sec. 70.

83. No person belonging to the Maryland National Guard shall be arrested on any process except such as may be issued by military authority, while going to, remaining at, or returning from any place at which he may be required to attend for military duty.

It shall be unlawful for the owner, or the owner's agent, whatever may be the latter's designation, of any place of amusement or of recreation otherwise opened to the general public, admission to which is free or otherwise, to refuse admission to or exclude from the said place of amusement or of recreation, any officer or enlisted man of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Revenue Cutter Service, the National Guard of this State or of any State, Territory and of the District of Columbia, by reason of such officer or enlisted man being in uniform, and any such owner, or agent aforesaid, who upon conviction before a court of criminal jurisdiction shall be found guilty of a violation of the provisions of this Section shall be deemed and he is hereby declared to be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisoned for not more than six months or both in the discretion of the Court.

See sections 13, 69 and 87.

*The act of 1914, chapter 672, strikes out the designation "Naval Brigade" wherever it appears in article 65 of the code, and substitutes therefor the designation "Naval Militia."

†Some difficulty was experienced in codifying the act of 1914, chapter 663. A careful study of the act, however, seems to make reasonably clear the intention of the act, which is carried out in its codification.
