*While the act of 1914, chapter 314, repeals the act of 1906, chapter 471½—erroneously called in the title to said act chapter 471½ of the act of 1910—no reference is made to the act of 1904, chapter 509, and hence it would seem that the latter act has not been expressly repealed and accordingly it is codified. It may be that if the question should arise, the courts would hold that this section is impliedly repealed by the act of 1914, chapter 315.
