62.* No person shall push, paddle or convey on the waters of the Patuxent river or its tributaries, or marshes of said river or tributaries, any person or persons for the purpose of shooting any ortolan, rail or reedbird, duck or goose, without first obtaining a license from the clerk of the court of the county in which he resides, for which he shall pay the sum of two dollars and fifty cents; two dollars of which sum shall be paid to the board of school commissioners for the use of the schools of the county, and fifty cents to be retained by the clerk of the court as his fee for issuing such license; such license to expire at the end of one year from the date of its issue. Every person obtaining such license shall be given a figure, which figure shall be painted on the outside of any boat or skiff used for the purpose of pushing or paddling, in figures not less than one and one-half inches high, and of such a character and color that the same may be easily read. No person not a bona fide resident of the State of Maryland shall be entitled to have a license to push or paddle issued him by the clerk of the court. Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a mis-

*While the act of 1914, chapter 314, repeals the act of 1906, chapter 471½—erroneously called in the title to said act chapter 471½ of the act of 1910—and the act of 1908, chapter 520, no reference is made to the act of 1904, chapter 509, and hence it would seem that the latter act has not been expressly repealed and accordingly it is codified. It may be that if the question should arise, the courts would hold that this section is impliedly repealed by the act of 1914, chapter 315.
