See section 66.

1914, ch. 315.

62A.* No person shall push, paddle or convey on the waters of the Patuxent River or its tributaries, or marshes of said river, or its tributaries, any person or persons for the purpose of shooting any ortolan, rail or reedbird, duck or goose, without first obtaining a license from the clerk of the Court of the County in which he resides, for which he shall pay the sum of two dollars and fifty cents, two dollars of which sum shall be paid to the Board of County School Commissioners for the use of the schools of the County and fifty cents to be retained by the Clerk of the Court as his fee for issuing such license, such license to expire at the end of one year from the date of its issue. Every person obtaining such license shall be given a figure, which figure shall be painted on the outside of the boat or skiff used for the purpose of pushing or paddling in figures not less than one and one-half inches high, and of such character and color that the same may be easily read. No person not a bona fide resident of the State of Maryland shall be entitled to have a license to push or paddle issued him by the Clerk of the Court. Any person who violates the provisions of this Section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in the Circuit Court or before any justice of the peace of the State of Maryland in and for any of the Counties bordering on said river shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each offense, and the costs of the proceedings; one-half of the said fine to go to the informer, if any, and the other half, or the whole, as the case may be, to the Board of County School Commissioners wherein said offence was tried, for the benefit of the public schools thereof; and upon the failure to pay such fine and costs the offender shall be committed by the Court or justice of the peace who imposed the fine to the

*Apparently the act of 1914, chapter 315, was intended as a substitute for sections 60 to 64 and section 66, but in view of the situation explained in the footnote to those sections and of the fact that the editor does not attempt to determine when statutes are impliedly repealed, that being a question for the courts, both sections 60 to 64 and section 66 (as they remain after the act of 1914, chapter 314), and the act of 1914, chapter 315, are codified.
