

the Court or justice of the peace who imposed said fine to the County jail for a period of 10 days.

65. Repealed. (1914, ch. 314.)

66.

The act of 1908, chapter 574, was not repealed by the act of 1914, chapter 314. It may be that if the question should arise, the courts would hold that this section is impliedly repealed by the act of 1914, chapter 315.

1914, ch. 315.

67.* All bona fide members of any hunting club incorporated and organized on or before the first day of January, 1912, under the laws of the State of Maryland, and owning or leasing real estate therein within one mile of the Patuxent River and improved by a clubhouse and the membership of which does not exceed thirty, shall be considered bona fide residents of the State of Maryland within the meaning and intention of the Act, provided, that such member exhibit, when demanded by an authorized officer of the law as evidence of his membership, a card bearing his name, the corporate seal and name of his club and the signature of the president and secretary thereof; provided further that the secretary of said club file with the clerk of the Circuit Court wherein located a certified list of the membership of said club on or before the first day of September of each year, and said club pays at least twenty-five dollars per year in State and County taxes, otherwise said club shall pay the clerk of the Circuit Court a fee of twenty-five dollars to obtain the privileges of this Section.

68: It shall be unlawful for any person to shoot muskrat, wild fowl or game bird of any description on the Patuxent River or any of its tributaries from sunset until sunrise under a fine of not less than five dollars or more than twenty-five dollars and costs for each violation of this Act, which may be recovered in the Circuit Court by residents of the State of Maryland within the meaning and intention of this Act, provided that such member exhibit, when demanded any, and the remainder or whole thereof, as the case may be, to the Board of County School Commissioners of such County, for the use of the public schools thereof; and upon conviction and failure to pay the fine imposed and costs of the proceeding, the person so convicted shall be committed by the court or justice who imposed said fine in the County jail for a period not exceeding ten days.†

*Apparently the act of 1914, chapter 315, was intended as a substitute for sections 60 to 64 and section 66, but in view of the situation explained in the footnote to those sections, and of the fact that the editor does not attempt to determine when statutes are impliedly repealed, that being a question for the courts, both sections 60 to 64 and section 66 (as they remain after the act of 1914, chapter 314) and the act of 1914, chapter 315, are codified.

†The wording of this section is just as it appears in the act of 1914, chapter 315.
