

title, the employment certificate as hereinafter provided, issued to said child; and keeps two complete lists of the names, together with the ages, of all boys under sixteen years of age and all girls under eighteen years of age employed in or for such establishment or in such occupation, one on file and one conspicuously posted near the principal entrance of the place or establishment in which such children are employed; and unless such employment, permission or sufferance to work in, about or in connection with said establishments or occupations shall be in accordance with the terms and regulations laid down for said employment certificates as hereinafter provided.

10. Attendance officers, inspectors of factories, or other authorized inspectors or officers charged with the enforcement of this sub-title shall require that the employment certificates and lists provided for in this sub-title be produced for their inspection.

1912, ch. 731, sec. 11.

11. On termination of the employment of a child under sixteen years of age, the employment certificate issued to such child shall be returned by registered mail by the employer to the official issuing the same within twenty-four hours if said return is demanded by said child, and otherwise within fifteen days of the termination of said employment, and the official to whom said certificate is so returned shall file said certificate and preserve the same, and on the return of said certificate shall notify the chief of the Bureau of Statistics and Information of said return. Any child whose employment certificate has been returned as above provided shall be entitled to a new certificate without re-examination except a physician's certificate that the child is physically able to undertake the work for which the new certificate is to be issued, and such reissue of a certificate shall be subject to all conditions as to recording and reporting governing the original issue.

12. An employment certificate shall be issued in Baltimore City only by the chief of the Maryland Bureau of Statistics and Information, and in the counties by said chief or by the county superintendent of schools of the county in which said child resides, or is employed, or by some person designated in writing by said superintendent. The employment certificate shall be issued only upon the application in person of the parent, guardian or legal custodian of the child desiring such employment, or if said child have no parent, guardian or legal custodian, then by next friend, but no certificate shall be issued by any person for any child then in, or about to enter such person's own employment, or the employment of a firm or corporation of which said person is a member, officer or employ e. Employment certificates shall be of two classes: General employment certificates and vacation em-
