

1912, ch. 731, sec. 30.

30. Such permit shall state the name and the date and place of birth of the child, the name and address of the parent or guardian or custodian or next friend making application for such permit, and shall describe the color of the hair and eyes, the height and weight, and any distinguishing facial marks of such child, and shall further state that the papers required by the preceding sections have been duly examined and signed, and that the child named in such permit has personally appeared before the officer issuing the permit. The badge furnished by the officer issuing the permit shall bear on its face a number corresponding to the number of the permit and the name of the child. Every such permit and every such badge on its reverse side shall be signed in the presence of the officer issuing the same by the child in whose name it is issued.

1912, ch. 731, sec. 31.

31. The badge provided for herein shall be worn conspicuously at all times by such child while so working. All such permits and badges shall expire annually on the first day of January, and no such permit or badge shall be authority beyond the period fixed therein for its duration. The color of the badge shall be changed each year.

No child to whom such permit and badge are issued shall transfer the same to any other person. He shall exhibit the same upon demand at any time to any officer charged with the duty of enforcing the provisions of this sub-title relating to street trades.

1912, ch. 731, sec. 32.

32. No child under sixteen to whom a permit and badge are issued as provided for in the preceding sections of this sub-title shall distribute, sell, expose, or offer for sale, any newspapers, magazines or periodicals, or work at any of the trades or occupations mentioned in section 27 in any street or public place after eight o'clock in the evening, or before six o'clock in the morning nor during the hours when the public schools in the city in which such child resides are in session, unless provided with an employment certificate.

33. Any child in any city having a population of 20,000 or over who shall distribute, sell, expose or offer for sale newspapers, magazines or periodicals, or shall work at any of the trades or occupations mentioned in section 27 in violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title shall be deemed delinquent and may be arrested by any officer or inspector charged with the enforcement of this sub-title or by any probation officer of a juvenile court and brought before the juvenile court if there be any juvenile court in the city where such child resides, or, if not, before any court or magistrate having jurisdiction over offenses committed by children, and shall be dealt with according to law.
