

1914, ch. 800, sec. 4.

4. The Commission shall be in continuous session and open for the transaction of business during all business hours of each and every day, excepting Sundays and legal holidays. All sessions shall be open to the public, and shall stand and be adjourned without further notice thereof on its record. All proceedings of the Commission shall be shown on its record of proceedings, which shall be a public record, and shall contain a record of each case considered and the award paid or allowed to any employe of the Commission, or to any other person for services. Provided, however, that any person in the employ of the Commission who shall divulge any information secured by him in respect to the transactions, property or business of any person, firm, company or corporation, association or joint partnership to any person other than the members of the Commission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to a fine of not less than $100 or more than $500 or imprisonment, not exceeding 18 months in the discretion of the Court, and shall thereafter be disqualified from holding any appointment or employment with the Commission.

1914, ch. 800, sec. 5.

5. The Commission may employ a secretary, actuaries, accountants, inspectors, examiners, experts, clerks, stenographers and other assistants, and fix their compensation subject to the written approval of the Governor; such compensation shall be paid out of the appropriation in the State Treasury provided for in this article. The secretary, actuaries, accountants, inspectors, examiners, experts, clerks, stenographers and other assistants that may be employed shall be entitled to receive their actual necessary expenses while traveling on the business of the Commission. Such expenses shall be itemized and sworn to by the person who incurred the expense, and allowed by the Commission. The Commission shall keep and maintain its main office and such branch offices as it shall deem proper and necessary for the administration of the article, and shall provide suitable rooms, necessary office furniture, supplies, books, periodicals and maps for the same. All necessary expenses shall be audited and paid out of the appropriation in the State Treasury provided for in this article. It shall provide itself with a seal for the authentication of its orders, awards and proceedings, upon which shall be inscribed the words "State Industrial Accident Commission, State of Maryland—Official Seal."

Each member of the Commission and each person appointed to office or employment by the Commission shall before entering upon the duties of his office or employment take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office.

1914, ch. 800, sec. 6.

6. The Secretary of the Commission shall keep and maintain a full and true record of all proceedings of the Commission, of all docu-
