

mination of the cases of dependent, neglected or delinquent children as provided in Section 49, or in any County where such assignment when once made has been annulled, revoked or remains no longer in force for any cause whatsoever; and in any such County the forms of commitments by Justices of the Peace shall not be affected by anything in this sub-title contained, but all such commitments in such Counties as would have been good and valid before the passage of this sub-title shall be taken and held good and valid, anything in this sub-title to the contrary notwithstanding.

1916, ch. 326, sec. 15.

61. The provisions of this sub-title shall be construed as conferring additional and supplementary powers and jurisdiction on the Circuit Courts for the several Counties, and not in substitution of or in conflict with any other powers possessed by any of said Circuit Courts under any existing general or local laws.*

1916, ch. 326, sec. 17.

62. This sub-title shall not apply to Baltimore City.

Minors Without Proper Care or Guardianship.

1916, ch. 674, sec. 1.

63. Any parent, guardian or person having the custody, control or supervision of any child defined by the statutes of this State as a minor without proper care or guardianship, or any person who shall knowingly or wilfully encourage, aid, cause, abet, or connive at such state of absence of proper care or guardianship of a minor, or who shall knowingly or wilfully do any act or acts to directly produce, promote or contribute to the conditions which render such child a minor without proper care or guardianship, or who having the custody, control or supervision of such child, shall wilfully neglect to do that which will directly tend to prevent such a condition, or to remove the conditions that render such a child a minor without proper care or guardianship shall be proceeded against as provided herein.

1916, ch. 674, sec. 2.

64. Any reputable person being a resident of the State of Maryland, having knowledge of a child in any County of said State or the City of Baltimore, who appears to be a minor without proper care or guardianship, and who is not an inmate of a State institution, or any institution, incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland for the care and correction of children, or of any reform school or industrial school for juvenile offenders, and having knowledge of the person or persons responsible for or contributing to the condition of said child,

*Section 16 of the act of 1916, chapter 326, provides for the repeal of all laws or parts of laws in conflict with said act of 1916, to the extent of such conflict.
